Item 7.01. Regulation FD Information.

As previously reported by SEI Investments Company (the “Company”), a third-party vendor to the Company, M.J. Brunner, experienced a ransomware attack that had led to the exposure of data relating to certain clients of the Company. In order to provide information to clients with respect to questions that they may have regarding the situation, the Company has posted questions and answers on its corporate website, which may be found at <https://information.seic.com>. The Company may provide additional information regarding the situation from time to time at the same location.

As provided in General Instruction B.2 to Form 8-K, the information furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 hereof shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, except as shall be expressly provided by specific reference in such filing.

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain forward looking statements within the meaning or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. In some cases you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may”, “will”, “expect”, “believe” and “continue” or “appear.” Our forward-looking statements include our current expectations with respect to the ransomware attack on our third-party vendor. You should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements as they are based on the current beliefs and expectations of our management and subject to significant risks and uncertainties many of which are beyond our control or are subject to change. Although we believe the assumptions upon which we base our forward-looking statements are reasonable, they could be inaccurate. Some of the risks and important factors that could cause actual results to differ from those described in our forward-looking statements can be found in the “Risk Factors” sections of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019, as well as subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
