FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEI NAMES PAUL KLAUDER AS NEW HEAD OF INSTITUTIONAL GROUP

Former Head of Sales for Institutional Group Brings More than 20 Years of Experience in Institutional Investing to New Role

OAKS, Pa., Feb. 3, 2016 - SEI (NASDAQ: SEIC) announced today that Paul Klauder, formerly head of sales for SEI's Institutional Group, has been named Executive Vice President of SEI and Head of the SEI Institutional Group. Klauder takes over the position from Edward D. Loughlin, who retired on January 31, 2016, after more than 36 years with the company.

Prior to his appointment, Klauder oversaw business development for the North American institutional investing market. He has been at the forefront of expanding new market opportunities and solutions across SEI's Institutional market segments. Klauder has worked directly for Loughlin since 1999 after previous roles with the company in managing business development for the Mid-Atlantic and Midwest regions and direct institutional selling in the Mid-Atlantic region. He joined SEI from Arthur Andersen, where he worked as a Certified Public Accountant specializing in financial service audits and employee benefit plan reviews and consultations.

"We were privileged to have Ed at the helm of our Institutional business for so long and wish him the very best as he begins this new chapter in his life," said Alfred P. West, Jr., Chairman and CEO of SEI. "I am extremely confident in Paul's abilities to lead this business going forward. Paul has been an integral part of SEI's Institutional Group and has played a major role in turning what was a new business at SEI in the 1990s, into a market-leading asset management and solutions business for institutional investors."

"It's been a great experience to work alongside Ed and the rest of my Institutional colleagues for the last 22 years," Klauder said. "I'm humbled to have been selected for this position and look forward to continued success with our team as we look to adapt our solutions and capabilities to an ever-evolving, global institutional marketplace. We have an extremely strong management team in place and many accomplished professionals to help us proactively service and develop our institutional relationships."
